Consumer Notes:

Although there are two pages to this document, the biggest thing we have to say isn't on them. Most of the Olaes Enterprises shirts (Dragonball Z and Plastik) listed in the current product catalog have been discontinued by the manufacturer to make way for new designs, leaving us in a difficult position. With some cajoling, we were able to get most of our existing orders filled, as well as a few extra, but once those are gone they will be withdrawn for good. Contact us for more information! Making news this month is the announcement that Bandai Visual is opening a US division. This could, in theory, mean the release of many titles thought locked out of the US market (like Mobile Suit Gundam). More on this as it develops. The second volume of Final Fantasy (the first volume of which sold a ton last year) ships as does Anime 18's follow-on to La Blue Girl, Lady Blue. We suspect that it will do very well in the market also! But, to us the biggest surprise is the number of new Laserdiscs in this DVD age!

JEFF'S PICK(S) OF THE MONTH

I'd say that the hit of this month is probably going to be the 2nd volume of Final Fantasy, just based on how well volume 1 wound up selling. Probably the most interesting thing, though, is the new revised version of Manga Manga. This is the standard by which anime books are measured! Also, the newest volume of Captain Tylor ships this month!
